Sikh Council UK supports the 'Gurinder for NEC Campaign'

Gurinder Singh Josan was elected to the Labour Party National Executive Committee in April 2020 in a by-election as the first Sikh ever to be in this important role. Gurinder is now standing again for Labour's NEC and needs the help of members across Britain.

Sikh Council UK supports Gurinder Singh's campaign to be elected to this influential committee guiding Britain's main opposition party. Gurinder has previously served on the Executive Committee of Sikh Council UK as both 'Spokesperson' and the 'Head of Political Engagement'.

Surjit Singh Dusanjh, Spokesperson of SCUK said, "We believe his continued elevation on the highest decision making body of Britain's party in opposition, will help strengthen the visibility of Sikhs in Britain, across the political spectrum."
